From Pastor Woody:

To the folks at Eden Lutheran Church,

Suzan and I would like to express our deep appreciation for your welcome this last Sunday. What a great time we had together: celebrating our Lord's Word and meal, installing the new church officers, listening to beautiful music and approving our presence in your midst. And if that were not enough, we had a gracious and delicious reception in the Parish Hall. Great conversation, good food and kind hearts, this is what we are all about here.

Please accept my apology in missing the reception. It takes awhile to bring a new pastor up to speed and I was involved in an important committee meeting to insure your worship services will go well.

My wife was deeply touched by the congregation's present of a beautiful bouquet of flowers.

We look forward to being together with you, even though we realize our time may be short.

-Pastor Woody

March 2026

Our pilgrimage begins as followers of the Lord Jesus. just as our forebears of ages past. If we were visiting Jerusalem, numerous communities of faith will walk the ancient pathways to the events our Lord experienced, all leading to Calvary and the tomb. Many of the faithful throughout the world do not have the opportunity to walk the ancient sites, hear the proclamations of our Lord in the midst of the shouting crowds.

To have clarity of thought, word and deed, we have been on a preparatory journey during the Season of Lent. A time of renewed study, enlightenment and sharing with others during these forty days. You may ask why so long! I do not have a definitive reason except I have noticed with myself, it sometimes takes me a long time to admit my sins, my mistakes and my lack of understanding. Now maybe I am alone in this long journey of setting aside stubbornness, pride and hurt, but I doubt it.

Historically, the Church has provided to the worldwide followers of our Lord who are not in Jerusalem, an opportunity to experience the events, the words, the celebration and the sorrows during the period of Holy Week. Palm Sunday through Easter Sunday, we gather with other followers for reflection, repentance, searching ultimately to celebrate the precious gifts and promises our Lord provides us in order that we may live out our lives in Jesus's care, love, forgiveness and new life

Thus, we have prepared ourselves by worship, contemplation, prayer and study throughout this Season of Lent, so we, as followers, may hear and see the Good News anew thus drawing us ever closer to our Beloved Savior.

So, pull out your calendar book or your cell phone, and place these Holy Days upon your calendar as a priority--so that our Lord's suffering, death and resurrection may be upon our lips, our thoughts and our actions, not simply for day or moment, but in times of joy and sorrow, until our Lord beckons us to come home.

Another blessing we have is the opportunity to share in our Lord's Holy Meal and to celebrate our Lord's suffering, death and resurrection in the homes. As we are called "the Body of Christ" some who are in the midst of struggles which includes lack of mobility and health, cannot always celebrate with others within the Body. Fortunately, with a simple phone call to the church office, Pastor Woody would be pleased to visit in your home, and bring our Lord's Supper. In addition, Pastor Woody will be contacting by phone, either by church phone or his cell phone 909-213-1666, those he has been informed of who may have mobility or health issues.

Council's Corner

January 2026

Submitted by Lynnea Dunaj, Council President

February brought another new change to Eden. Pastor Woody was installed as the bridge pastor. We welcomed both him and his wife Suzan. Pastor Woody has taken great interest in Eden's spiritual life. He is very proactive and supportive of Eden's activities. Please feel free to stop by and visit him.

New council officers were installed for the upcoming year. Lynnea Dunaj will remain as President, Harvey Clark as Vice President, and Chuck Wilson as Treasurer. Gary Hudson has replaced Katie Williams as Secretary. Thank you, Katie, for the wonderful job you did last year.

Council met in January to begin the new year with enthusiasm and excitement. Members present: Lynnea Dunaj, Chuck Wilson, Katie Williams, Pat Sinclair, Gary Hudson, and Martin Silveira. Members absent: Harvey Clark. Guest: Pastor Woody.

Committee reports follow. Please feel free to contact any council member with questions. We will all be glad to help.

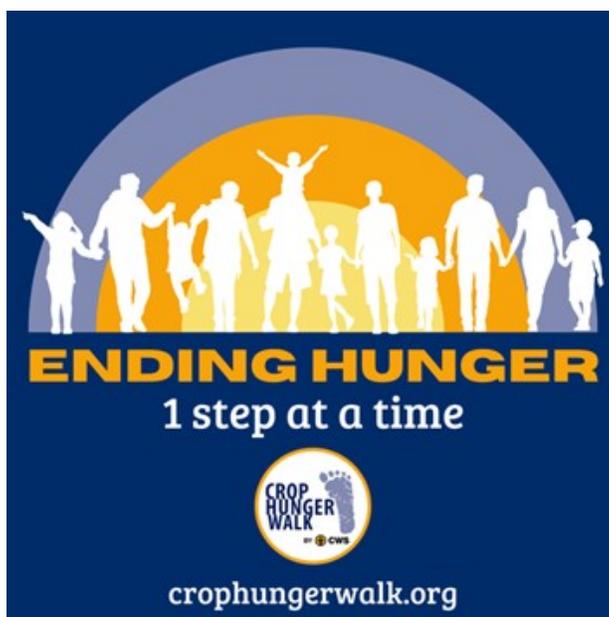

Finance-Chuck Wilson: There has been an increase in trespass and homeless incidents resulting in a recent break-in. Additional lighting and cameras have been installed to help deter this activity. Tree trimming bids are being accepted for the palm trees, jacaranda trees, and Chinese Elm. Music and Worship- Harvey Clark: Harvey, Pastor Woody, and Pastor Kent are in the process of discussing Ash Wednesday, Lenten soup suppers, Maunday Thursday, Good Friday, and Easter. Events will be shared with Trinity. Evangelism and Outreach- Lynnea Dunaj: No meeting in January. Sack lunches and collection of food items for Trinity's Food Pantry continue. Service and Fellowship-Nancy Liverman: Pastor Kim's farewell potluck was held and was well attended. She was thrilled with receiving her Giant's jacket, her favorite baseball team. She also enjoyed her money tree. Pastor Woody was welcomed with a cake, and his wife received a bouquet of flowers. Valentine cards are being collected for our homebound members. Property Report-Lynnea Dunaj: The sink-hole gutter curbing has been repaired. Additional cameras and lights have been installed. During January, incident reports have increased. The outside men's restroom was pried open, damaging the door and lock. The light switch and wires were pulled from the electrical socket. The church also had pry marks on the office door. Tree trimming bids are being sought, as well as additional electrical bids for lighting in the sanctuary. Security-Gary Hudson: There were no alarm activities this month. Incident reports increased from 2 in Deember to 6 in January. Security is being monitored continuously. Additional lighting and cameras have been placed along the Brockton Street side of the church. Events-Gary Hudson: No events are scheduled for January. "Taste of Eden" is still being pursued. Advertising and Website-Lynnea Dunaj: Updates to our current website are being discussed with Michel Jenkins, our acting Webmaster. Preschool-Pat Sinclair: The local Elk's Club held an on-site vision screening. The staff enjoyed the Christmas party and Target gift cards. The preschool annual Christmas Program was held on Dec. 19th. The fire alarm inspection and repair are still pending.

Our next council meeting is Thursday, February 26th.

Director's Report February 11, 2026

School Update

-We have received a donation of $700.00 for Christmas and Valentine's Day so we wanted to purchase 4 new scooters for the kids. Pastor Woody suggested I visit a store named Ko-ality just to look around. I found 4 scooters there for $10.00 each and purchased 4 of them. I have submitted a reimbursement form.

- I will be mentoring a student from CBU for the Spring semester. She is graduating this year in Graphic Design but needs me on her team because her final project is about Childhood Autism. I took this challenge because I am no longer needed to mentor the current student due to her finishing her program. I sent in her final papers last semester.

-a former student will be starting her little girl in Netti's room in March. I am thinking that we may be starting a few in March.

- We have finished getting our extended stay emergency areas secured and ready. This is for when we need to hide the children and have enough time to leave the classrooms. One is in the choir room next to the bathroom and on the opposite side of the school it is in the girl's bathroom.

Upcoming Events

- Eva and I are planning to speak with Yelp and have the pictures changed. The pictures included now are outdated and boring. We will not add to cost without permission. We need to see what can be done to boost our visibility.

-Just for Kids dentistry will be visiting tomorrow. In the past parents have taken the kids there because the child asks to go.

We will be talking about Liisa's book choice, "The Diary of Mattie Spenser" by Sandra Dallas. Liisa will be the hostess.

The Diary of Mattie Spenser
by Sandra Dallas.

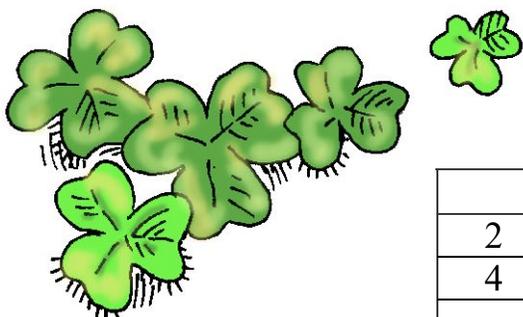

" No one is more surprised than Mattie Spenser herself when Luke Spenser, considered the great catch of their small Iowa town, asks her to marry him. Less than a month later, they are off in a covered wagon to build a home on the Colorado frontier. Mattie's only company is a slightly mysterious husband and her private journal, where she records the joys and frustrations not just of frontier life, but also of a new marriage to a handsome but distant stranger. As she and Luke make life together on the harsh and beautiful plains. Mattie learns some bitter truths about her husband and the girl he left behind and finds love where she least expects it. Dramatic and suspenseful, this is an unforgettable story of hardship, friendship and survival."

Sounds like a good read!
See you at Liisa's on the 28th.

January 2026

“There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear;” -1 John 4:18a

Daoud Nassar represents the third of four generations that have owned and farmed a hilltop in the West Bank of Palestine. He shared the story with a group of church leaders of how he has engaged in a 35-year legal struggle to keep the Israeli government from taking away his family’s land. No matter how many documents are requested and provided or how many testimonies and affidavits are submitted, his land remains in jeopardy.

This is not just a legal battle. It is also a physical one. Israeli “settlers” frequently come on his land with clubs and guns, threatening his family and the farm workers with physical harm. If a Palestinian person strikes back or defends themselves, they are arrested and taken to jail, sometimes for extended periods of time. Roads are built on his land that require lawsuits. Trees that have borne olives for decades are bulldozed simply to apply more pressure on his family. It would be understandable for Daoud to become hateful or to give up and leave. Many Palestinians have sought a more peaceful and prosperous life elsewhere. Yet he remains on the land and refuses to hate anyone. He does so as an expression of his Christian faith. You can find out more about his story and how you can help here.

I was deeply moved and inspired when Daoud told us his story, especially as it echoed other stories we heard as we visited people in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Jordan and the Holy Land (ELCJHL). So many people could articulate the humiliation they had endured and yet, while we heard a lot of anger, no one exhibited any hate. Everyone prayed for and worked for a future where Israelis and Palestinians could enjoy full human rights—a witness the church in the United States needs right now. We can learn so much from these siblings in Christ!

To say we are in anxious and fearful times in America is to state the obvious. The federal government is using fear to try to control the people. This is especially true for people of color, the LGBTQ community, and women. The responses have varied from numbing and avoiding to protesting and posting. The anger is evident everywhere. So is the hate. In scripture, the opposite of love is not hate: it is fear. Fear is the root of anxiety and hatred. It is the tool of the empire, because when people are afraid, they are easier to control. As Nazi propagandist Joseph Goebbels said, "If you want to manipulate a people, keep them afraid."

Perhaps that is why almost all encounters with angels in the Bible begin with them saying, "Do not be afraid." In fact, it is often in the command form of the verb, which would sound more like, "Stop being afraid!" Now just saying that is not super helpful. Whether it comes from a human or an angel, being told to simply stop being afraid can even seem cruel unless it is tied to something more powerful. I believe that anchor is Divine Love.

When Jesus was baptized by John, we read that the heavens opened and a voice proclaimed, "This is my son, the beloved, in whom I am well pleased." (Matthew 3:17) Before he healed or taught or fed anyone in the gospels, Jesus was a beloved child, already pleasing to God. That identity cannot be taken away by anything. Jesus goes from the waters of his baptism to the wilderness where Satan tries to undermine that identity, but to no avail (Matthew 4:1-11). Jesus has internalized Divine Love, and now he embodies it.

When provoked and slandered, Jesus never retaliates. Instead, he forgives and includes. He teaches his followers that this is the key to living in God's Kingdom. We too are called to practice embodying and radiating Divine Love. It is also the owner's manual to faithful living in fearful times.

The people of God have experienced oppression before. In fact, it is more the norm than the exception for marginalized communities. Therefore, those of us who are freaking out a bit right now ought to look to the witness and wisdom of siblings who have been in situations like ours before and have kept their faith intact.

That is what I received from Daoud and so many others on this recent accompaniment trip to the Holy Land. They resist oppression by living faithfully and serving the needs of people in their communities. They measure the vitality of their church not by the number of people who attend on Sunday, but by the number of people from all faith backgrounds that they empower every day. They are literally casting away fear by practicing love.

We are certainly called to show up and protest the dehumanizing actions of our government. We are also called to nurture our relationship with Divine Love and to pour that love out in tangible ways to people around us. The act of loving our neighbor dilutes the fear created by our overly saturated, doomscrolling culture. Want to feel better? Want to be less afraid? Remind yourself that you belong and are beloved, and then simply love someone in a concrete way. Remember that those who want to control us will keep doing things to make us afraid. Let's remember and practice the truth that Love is the greatest power in the universe, and the only thing that truly matters.

Peace,
+ Dave

GOD'S WORK, OUR HANDS – OUTREACH UPDATES

Homeless Sack Lunch Ministry

One of Eden's outreach ministries is a sack lunch program for the needy and homeless in our community. Every Thursday morning, 30 sack lunches are made and delivered to our sister church Trinity Lutheran.

Trinity also hosts 'Showers of Hope' a weekly ministry offering mobile showers to people who want them. 'Showers of Hope' provides the small team needed to operate and clean the shower. Lutheran Social Services (LSS) is also on site to offer their help and services. Trinity, LSS and others distribute personal hygiene items, clothes and Eden's sack lunches.

Donations of food items like candy, cookies, chips or bottled water are always welcome. Contact Ervin and Joan Seidel at (951) 780-2397 for any additional information.

The January, February, March edition of Christ in Our Home is now available in the church office and the narthex.

Christ in our Home is a wonderful tool to use in preparation for Sunday worship. The meditations for Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, and Sunday each week are based on the Old Testament, Psalm, and New Testament readings, respectively, that are presented during worship that Sunday at worship. The Sunday meditation is based on the Gospel that is read that Sunday.

And the Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday meditations come from the Daily Lectionary readings as a follow-up to the previous Sunday's selections.

This devotional is a gift to each member, so please avail yourself of this special opportunity.
